
And Mev told him about my test.

(Quickly...)

A Simple Man

About two months ago,
I took an English test
for my residence visa.

I took the life in the UK test
for my visa as well.

For this test the result was shown as soon as the test finished.

Then I found that if my total percentage was 1% lower,
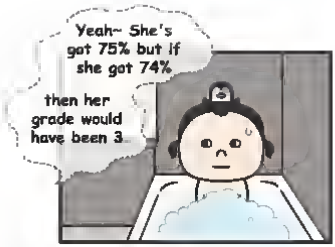
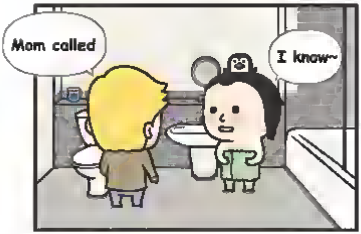
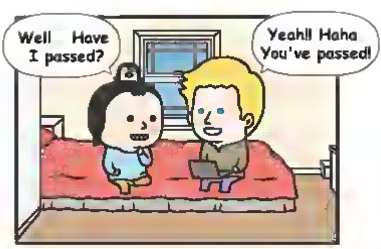
I would have receive the third grade.



... he was telling her my result in detail.



After I finished the bath, I told him.

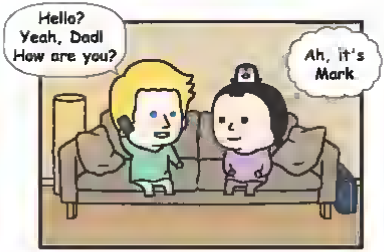


Luckily, I could check that I passed the test.

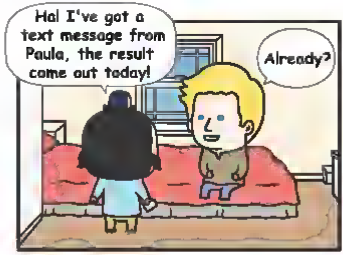
Actually, my result isn't bad. I messed up one part so my average's gone down a lot though.
I knew you would have done it well. Why did you worry about it so much?

I looked through the result.

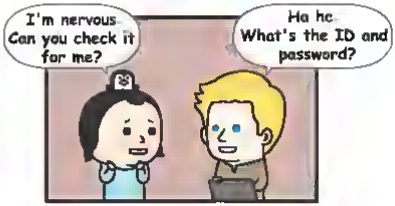
That evening.



Mev's father Mark called Mev to say hello.



And I got the result of the test a few days ago.



I wasn't very confident.

Although that's all true, sometimes Ah, I didn't think about that it's better not to mention

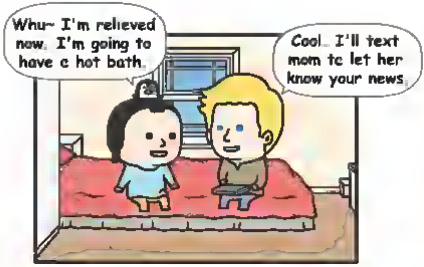
I won't say in detail next time
Thanks

After that...



I was relieved
so I decided to toke o both.

Then I heard that Gail called Mev
as soon as she received the message.

I could hear what they were talking about very well.
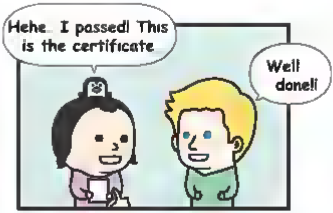
But then...



So I didn't need to wait at all to know my result.

Two important tests were finished so I could prepare my vise form without too much stress

I felt a pressure in my chest.

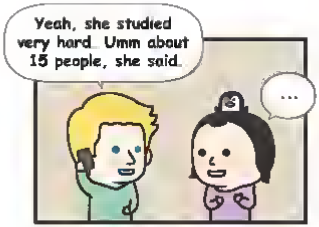
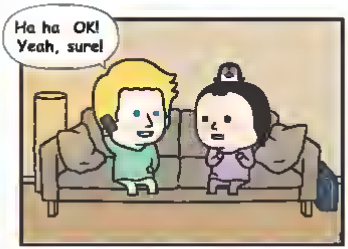
But why did you say all about my percentage and grade?

It was enough just to say that I was passed.
It makes me look worse if you say it like that

LINE Webtoon



(Say that I've got 100%...)



(Hey...)